

Good morning!

I wanted to take a quick moment to thank you for your participation in the Wine, Women & Shoes event in Louisville. You will be receiving shortly an itinerary of the evening's events. I am the vintner chair and am here to help you with anything. Please don't hesitate to reach out to myself, or any of your contacts at Wine, Women and Shoes should you have any questions regarding the event.

I look forward to meeting you on the 6th!

Thanks again,
Christen Congleton
