

Wine Women & Shoes Benefits Cancer Alliance of Naples

If sipping fine wines and viewing the latest shoe styles and fashions isn't enough, here's another reason to attend the blowout event on Thursday, January 27 at the Naples Hilton Hotel: just $50 will buy you a chance to take home the contents of the most fabulous closet of fashion finds. At the Wine, Women & Shoes event the contents of a special California Closet will be revealed, featuring select luxury items from retailers at the Waterside Shops. A limited number of Keys to the Closet will be available for purchase and if yours is the winning key, you will go home with the entire contents of the Closet! (You must attend the event to purchase a Key, but do not have to be present at drawing time to win.) The variety of items will make your hangers spin: from handbags to fragrances and valuable gift cards from retailers including Gucci, Ferragamo, Anne Fontaine, Beach House of Naples, Edward Beiner, Kate Spade, Nordstrom, Lululemon, Chicos, Soma, White House/Black Market, and more! Need room for all your new goodies? California Closets has included a $2,000 credit towards a new closet of your own. All told, the Closet and contents are valued at nearly $6,000. Will YOUR key unlock the treasure? Join us at Wine, Women and Shoes at the Hilton and find out. Be There. Be Fabulous! CAN raises funds to help local residents with cancer to continue their treatments without the added stress of financial burdens incurred by daily living expenses. When patients under treatment are torn between paying for a utility bill or a life-saving medication, the CAN steps in to provide aid.
